SAMUEL CROSBY NEAR DEATH AS RESULT OF SUBWAY CRASH

Arlington Motorman Still On Danger List Last Night — Was Operator of Elevated Street Car Which Crashed Into Another Car Last Sunday — Accident in Copley Square Subway Station — Many Injured — Investigation Conducted

Samuel N. Crosby, age 68, of 163 Forest st., is battling for his life in the Boston City Hospital as the result of injuries received when the Boston Elevated street-car which he was operating plowed into another car in the Copley Square subway station, Boston, last Sunday night. Over a score of passengers were injured, one of them seriously. Motorman Crosby received a fracture of the skull, fracture of right knee, fractures to his leg and lacerations to his scalp. Because of his serious condition, Mr. Crosby has been unable to discuss the collision in detail.

Motorman Crosby had returned to work last Sunday after being out sick for two weeks. He had served the Elevated as motorman for 17 years. He is married and has two sons, Walter, of Greenwood, and William, and a daughter, Hattie. The last two live at home.

Passengers, and others waiting for the subway car were panicked when the two cars crashed and the vestibules on both were reduced to splinters. Women screamed and men yelled as they fought their way out of the darkened street-cars.

Passengers Tossed About. The car that was standing in the station discharging passengers was in charge of motorman John J. Cunningham of 102 Eta st., Brighton. Cunningham said his car was full, with at least 60 passengers standing and sitting. "I had just let off a number of passengers," he said, "and was about to close the doors and start toward the Boylston-st station when a terrific impact occurred. Passengers were tossed into the aisles and the station was in pandemonium for several minutes." Cunningham's car was a Beacon-Reservoir car, inbound for Park st. Crosby's car, a Lake-st Commonwealth car, was also loaded, witnesses said, and many were standing near the front door to leave at Copley station when the accident happened.

Collins Seeks Another Term

January 17, 1935

Editor, Arlington News.
Dear Sir:

I wish to take this opportunity through your paper to announce my candidacy for reelection for Selectman.

The past three years have been the busiest and most trying in our town's history. I have had the great opportunity to serve for three years as a Selectman and the greatest thrill and joy I have received has been that of service, and the knowledge that I was in a position to assist those in distress.

My business interests are in Arlington, and I, therefore, have probably given more time and attention to the affairs of the Town than any other Selectman ever had the opportunity of doing.

It has been a pleasure to serve, and if re-elected I will continue my efforts to assist in the great work of restoring prosperity.

Sincerely yours,
Leonard Collins.

Three Injured In Auto Accidents

Ruth Wilhelm, age 9, of 88 Orvis rd., was injured last Saturday when she was struck by an auto operated by Shirley L. Smith, of 13 Bowker st., East Lexington. She was treated by Dr. Robinson and later taken to the Cambridge Hospital. The accident happened between Freeman st. and Massachusetts ave.

In another accident last Saturday, Ruth Spry of Mattapan and Mrs. Mary Healey of 117 Draper ave., Dorchester were injured when a car operated by Miss Spry was in collision with another car operated by Denis J. Healey, of 561 Massachusetts ave., Lexington.

Grant Change In New Bus Service Route

Representing the Service Bus Lines which was recently granted a permit to operate busses in the standpipe district, Atty. Thomas J. Boynton appeared before the selectmen last Monday evening and requested that a change be allowed in the route originally planned. The busses will run from Gray st. to Highland ave. and Massachusetts ave., instead of from Gray onto Churchill ave as originally set forth.

More ERA Projects To Be Submitted

Several new projects will be submitted by the selectmen to the State ERA board for approval. They are: Re-grading and resurfacing of playgrounds at Junior High West and Parmenter school; laying of granite sidewalk along the Brackett school; enlarging stage at Cutter school; and erecting bulletin boards in schools for town elections.

Escapes Injury As Car Skids, Overturns

Miss Sally Poole, of 210 Park ave., escaped death by inches when the car she was driving skidded and tipped over on Massachusetts ave near Allen st late last Friday night. The car involved was owned by Irving Poole, well-known local resident.

WOMEN'S BETTER HOUSING COMMITTEE IS NAMED

The Women's division of the Federal Housing Plan reported to Henry E. Keenan, general chairman of the Arlington committee, this week that plans for work are well under way.

Mrs. P. Joseph McManus, chairman of the Women's division has made an effort in forming her committee to select a representative group of women from all districts of the town who will become active in promoting the interest and work of the Federal Housing campaign in their community. She has solicited the cooperation of the following women who will assist in making the work a success.

Mrs. Palmer Guarante, 87 Medford st.; Mrs. Lewis M. Bowe, 34 Dow ave.; Mrs. Richard Donovan, 28 Chandler st.; Mrs. A. Warren Rutherford, 1 Newcomb st.; Mrs. Frances Barry, 30 School st.; Mrs. Agnes Sullivan, 36 Phillips st.; Mrs. George Glavin, 48 Thorne-dike st.; Miss Elmas Adamian, 195 Pleasant st.; Mrs. Arthur H. Medgonian, 83 Melrose st.; Miss Margaret Duggan, 66 Cleveland st.; Dr. Agnes Israelian, 36 Churchill Ave.; Mrs. William Parrier, 129 Overlook Rd.; Miss Rose Collins, 21 Cleveland st.; Mrs. Michael A. Fredo, 9 Webster st.; Mrs. A. Clifford Hudson, 74 Kensington Park; Mrs. Frank Torricelli, 5 Oak Knoll; Mrs. Martin Hines, 54 No. Union st.; Mrs. Anthony Yagisian, 15 Cleveland st.; Mrs. Christopher Kelly, 28 Everett st.; Mrs. Harrison L. Evans, 13 Lakeview st.; Miss Anna B. Callahan, 14a Webster st.; Mrs. Lewis E. Stickey, 88 Appleton st.; Mrs. John F. Cashman, 17 Hobbs Court; Mrs. Mary Harrington, 21 Albermarle st.; Mrs. Francis H. Beaton, 144 Crosby st.; Mrs. Allen E. Cowie, 5 Florence Terrace; Mrs. William Keefe, 53 Fairmont st.; Mrs. Arthur G. Wier, 15 Alfred Rd.; Miss Isabella Gratto, 33 Russell st.; Mrs. Edward Lynch, 15 Rhinoclin Rd.; Mrs. Eric Wright, 7 Harold st.

The full meaning of the Federal Housing Plan is not thoroughly understood by many. A better understanding of it no doubt, would cause many to avail themselves of the opportunity to better their housing conditions and at the same time assist in creating employment in many different branches of trade in Arlington.

The committee of the women's division will meet at a near date and plans will be made for an open meeting when a speaker from the Massachusetts Branch of the Federal Housing administration will explain fully the meaning and opportunities which the Federal Housing Act offers. Notice of this meeting will appear in the NEWS.

LAST CHANCE TO WIN PRIZE IN AD CONTEST

Encore! Because of the tremendous interest in the series of Scrambled Ads published by the NEWS during the past four weeks, we are extending the contest another week and in today's NEWS another page of these brain teasers appears. Here's your last chance to win a cash prize or free theatre tickets.

The correct solution to last Friday's Ads is:

WUNDERLICH'S. Many contestants were able to find all the letters making up this advertiser's name plus one or two extra missing letters. Interest has been tremendous. Advertisers have received much favorable comment and the NEWS office mail every day has included scores of answers. The answers to last Friday's ads have been more unique than ever and the task of judging the best ones was difficult. Answers which tied up with the product sold by the advertiser whose name was to be spelled were naturally given first choice. Two miniature gasoline stations were among the most clever entries. Here are the winners of last Friday's Scramble:

First Prize, $3.00—Miss Frances Riley, 18 Norcross st.

Second Prize, $1.00—Miss Esther S. Hughes, 28 Edmund rd.

Third Prize—Mrs. Mildred McKenzie, 91 Melrose st.

Ten other prizes consisting of two tickets each either the Capital or Regent theatres:

ANNUAL ELECTION FIGHT ON WITH MANY IN FIELD

Long Terms For Bandits

Seven years in Concord Reformatory was the sentence imposed in Middlesex Criminal Court last Tuesday on Albert R. Benoit, 28, of Somerville, father of six children, when he pleaded guilty to 17 armed robberies committed this Fall and Winter in Arlington, Medford, Somerville and Cambridge.

Nicholas DiStasio, 26, Edwards st., Medford, was sentenced 7 to 10 years in State Prison, because he had a prior criminal record dating back to 1925. Judge Nelson P. Brown was on the bench.

Benoit's confession implicated DiStasio who was taken into custody later and pleaded guilty to 16 armed robberies.

The confessions clear up a long series of robberies at filling stations marked by similarity of procedure. It was the custom of the pair to engage a taxi-cab, seize and bind the driver in some lonely spot and commit the robberies at gasoline stations in the cab. At other times, the two men held up private cars and robbed the drivers, attacking the cars when stopped at red traffic lights.

Local Residents At Dever's Testimonial

Selectman Leonard Collins, Edward T. Ryan, former member of the public works board; Leo Matthews, John Mitchell of the public works board, John Murphy, town counsel, Miss Anna B. Callahan, secretary of the Middlesex County Women's Democratic League and William Robinson, all of this town attended the testimonial banquet to Atty. Gen. Paul A. Dever, at the State armory in Cambridge last Wednesday evening, at which 3000 people were present. State Senator Charles T. Daly, of this district, was among those at the head table.

The Voters' committee of Precinct 13 has voted to support Henry E. Keenan for the Board of Public Works.

Mr. Keenan is well-known in Arlington and is held in high esteem by all who know him. The group hopes that the citizens of Arlington will give their hearty support to elect this candidate.

More "Stop" Signs For Summer Street

Citizens' Committee Announces Slate For Next Town Election — Estabrook and Adams Head Ticket — Selectman Collins To Seek Another Term — Others Out For Same Office—Henry E. Keenan To Run For Public Works Board — Bevins For School Committee

Arlington's annual political war preceding the town election to be held this year on March 5, got under way for good this week when the long-awaited decision of the Citizens' Committee slate was made known. Ten candidates were endorsed at a meeting of the Committee last Monday evening. In addition to the Citizens' Committee action, several prominent residents have announced their candidacy.

Henry E. Keenan well-known insurance and real estate operator, took out papers for board of public works. Mr. Keenan is a member of the Finance Committee and is very active in business and social affairs of the community. He was recently appointed general chairman of the Arlington Better Housing Campaign committee. Edward T. Ryan, former chairman of the board, is also a candidate as well as Ralph Adams, Citizens' Committee choice.

Another strong contender for the board of public works may be William Barry, according to reports received by the NEWS this week. It is understood that considerable pressure is being exerted to persuade Mr. Barry to run. He has been very active in political affairs having served as town moderator, member of the Finance committee and as clerk of the public works board. He is past commander of American Legion

BUREAUCRACY RAMPANT

"On the ropes and gasping for mercy from the bristling array of governmental laws and orders with which it cannot keep up, the American Bar Association has looked into the whole challenging mess of new rules and regulations and come away shaking its head," said the Grand Rapids Press recently. "New laws are all right, the bar association intimated, but there is a limit to which man's comprehension could go..."

"Now the Brookings Institute, a research body, has arrived at the same conclusion—that a veritable Roman Holiday of law-making has been visited upon the country. Laws appear and are enforced with dizzying speed that shows streamlining has not taken place only in railroads or airplanes."

To the lawyer and the governmental specialist, a vast influx of new laws creates great problems—and they create still greater problems for the public at large. Every time a bureau is created, every time new machinery for enforcing legislation is set up, a new regiment of public employees begins feeding at the public trough. Individual liberties and corporate rights are abrogated or restricted; citizens and businesses, faced with a welter of unprecedented rulings, are often unable to decide whether an act is legal or illegal—and the tax bill soars.

It would be unjust to blame bureaucracy on one party or one administration. It has been growing rapidly for many years, and its rate of growth was accelerated by depression. We see its results now—the nation's tax bill is at the highest point in history, while the national income is far below normal; more people work for government than ever before. And the people pay—both in cash and in loss of rights and privileges they have hitherto enjoyed. It is an undeniable fact that the two aspects of bureaucracy—higher cost of government and extension of paternalism—are a great barrier to the development of industry, the employment of men, the investment of capital; in brief, a barrier to recovery. We will have less bureaucracy, less government extravagance, less paternalism when the people demand it—and not until then.

Arlington A. A. To Play Salem Monday

The Arlington A. A. will play the Sacred Heart H. N. S. at Salem on Monday night at the Salem High School gym. The Salem lads have quite a few stars from various championship Salem High School teams of years gone by and this will be sort of a reunion for some of the Arlington players who were their opponents in High School.

This game if his recent efforts are anything to go by. Against Co. D he played a great offensive game scoring 21 points. He and Bob Friery should be of great assistance putting the A. A. over with a victory.

There is still hope that the local fans will get a chance to see the A. A.'s Big Red in action in one of the local gyms before the month is over.

The Paquinox Club of Calvary Church met with Miss Alberta Gumb, 82 Bartlett Ave on Monday.

NEWS PUBLISHER WINS VERDICT IN CIVIL SUIT

In a sealed verdict returned in the Superior Court in East Cambridge, yesterday morning, Arthur J. Mansfield, publisher and owner of the Arlington Daily News, Inc., was awarded a favorable verdict in a civil suit brought against E. Copeland Lang of Belfast, Me., the largest stockholder of the Melrose Free Press, Melrose, Mass. Mr. Mansfield was represented in court by Attorney S. R. Wrightington of Boston and Lexington.

In 1930 Mr. Mansfield was the controlling stockholder in the Mansfield Printing Co., and the Columbus Press of Boston. He founded the Mansfield Printing Company in 1907 and conducted it for 24 years during which period, for five years, he was also Division Head of the Boston Trade School, printing department.

In 1930 the NEWS publisher surrendered the control of the Boston company and obtained a minority holding in the Consolidated Press, Inc., of Melrose, which was the holding company for four subsidiaries.

After leaving Melrose Mr. Mansfield became manager of the Arlington Daily News in the Spring of 1932 in which capacity he acted until October, 1934, when he became owner and publisher of the Arlington Daily News.

The suit was brought for breach of contract and the verdict returned represents the amount of damage claimed as a result of this action.

Drama Friends Play Next Week

Next Wednesday evening Arlington's drama-lovers will experience that relatively rare thrill of witnessing the first performance of a play on any stage. In this case the stage is that of the Friends of the Drama, corner of Maple and Academy streets, and the play is "Swift Sword", from the pen of Parker Wood, well known in Arlington for his efforts along dramatic lines. Additional performances will follow on Friday and Saturday, curtain at 8:00 P. M. sharp.

Home Committee Of Woman's Club To Sponsor Lecture

The second lecture in the course sponsored by the American Home Committee will be given Friday afternoon, January 25, at 2:30 in Robbins Library hall. Carolyn L. Dewing will talk on "Good Taste in Dress."

A Radcliffe graduate, Mrs. Dewing has taken graduate art work at Harvard University and the Chamberlain School. She is an interior decorator by profession and for several years has been a University Extension lecturer. She is the author of a book on Interior Decorating and has written for the Woman's Page of the Boston Herald and for Jordan Marsh Home Furnishing Department. Mrs. Dewing is a member of the Art Committee of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Arlington Trackmen vs. Watertown Today

The Arlington track team faces Watertown High School, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock on the High School board track. Arlington should win quite easily the 300, 600, 1000, shotput, broad jump, high jump with second and third places sprinkled here and there.

The hurdles, the dashes and the relay are in Watertown's favor. Unless the Watertown team improved surprisingly during the week, Doc McCarty's squad should add another victory to the nineteen it has already won over Watertown. Last year was the first time in the history of the school's competition that Watertown was able to eke out a victory over a McCarty-coached team.

Belmont Tops Arlington 22 - 20

Belmont High was too strong for Coach Lowder's basketball quintet, defeating the local team, 22 to 20 in the neighboring town last Tuesday.

The game was bitterly fought however and in the last stanza especially, there were plenty of fireworks. Jones of Arlington tied the score 16 to 16 and later put the locals ahead. In the last minute of play, Tedesco of Belmont shot a basket for the winning goal. The Arlington Seconds won, 32 to 18.

Looks To Keenan As Able Candidate For Public Works

Mr. Mansfield, Arlington News.
Dear Mr. Mansfield:
We are privileged to offer to the voters of Arlington, a fair minded practical business man for the office of Public Works.

Henry E. Keenan has been a resident of Arlington for thirty-two years, educated in our Arlington Schools and graduated from Suffolk Law School and specialized in business management at Harvard Business School and Boston University.

Mr. Keenan's business experience has been of the type to bring him in constant contact with people seeking service and with those who render service.

Mr. Keenan's earlier business experience was gained as caddy master at the Winchester Country Club while in Arlington High School. He then became associated with Edward T. Harrington Co. where he spent five years in property and land development, work which gave him the experience of subdivision layouts, road construction and public service layouts, in conjunction with the actual building of home sub-divisions.

He was then associated with a building and loan organization for five years where he was active in the development of many of our Arlington sub-divisions.

He has been a successful real estate and insurance operator, conducting his own office in Arlington where he can be found by the citizens of the Town, willing at all times to discuss their needs.

The Federal Government has recognized his ability by appointing him as home owner loan appraiser and general chairman of the Federal Housing Administration Act operated here in Arlington as the Better Housing Community Building Campaign.

We are sure that the voters of Arlington will recognize and use the opportunity of voting for this man of proven ability.

Very truly yours,

AMATEUR BASKETBALL LEAGUE GIVES THRILLS

The Arlington Amateur Basketball League went into its second round last Monday night before a surprisingly large crowd of spectators for the cold night. The surprise of the evening was again the defeat of the Menotomy club by a supposedly much weaker team. The Rangers aided by Tim McNamara of the great '27 and '28 team with his running mate, Red Beasley were far too strong for the Bears. The Sylvanians are featured with their second victory, a hard one, over the St. James Catholic club.

Schedule for Monday, Jan. 21
Bears vs. Fab Juniors
Rangers vs. St. James
Sylvanians vs. Menotomy Club

Next Monday night will find three good games on tap. The Bears and the Fab Juniors will be almost equal. The Fabs with a victory over the Menotomy Club will be slated for victory. The Rangers will have a hard time with the St. James but should emerge on top. The Sylvanians will have little trouble with the

St. Jerome's Party Is Largely Attended

Despite the bitter cold last Monday evening a very large number attended the new Arlington-Belmont bridge and whist held at the Hardy School under the auspices of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mahoney of Mary St. They were assisted by Mrs. Jos. Hallisey, Mrs. Jos. Carey and Mrs. A. Dillon in charge of bridge; Mrs. Marion Gleason, Mrs. Stephen Connolly and Miss Marion O'Connor in charge of whist; while Mrs. R. Donovan and Mrs. M. Moriarty took care of the chances. In addition, the following served as members of the general committee: Mrs. J. N. Glennon, Mrs. A. Edge, Mrs. Frank Kelly, Mrs. Fred Rosenberger, Mrs. J. O'Donahue and Mrs. A. McGillivray. Ushers were R. Donovan, F. Rosenberger, Jos. Carey, and D. Buckley.

The members of the prize committee had on hand an abundance

V. F. W. CALLS UPON VETS TO MOBILIZE FOR BONUS

Every overseas veteran in Arlington will be invited personally to membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States in conjunction with the nation-wide "bonus mobilization" of that organization.

Plans for the local recruiting campaign were announced by Commander Joseph Peterson, Arlington Post 1775, V. F. W., at Odd Fellows Hall on Tuesday night.

The bonus issue will be one of the first major proposals in this session of Congress and the national V.F.W. will launch the most intensive drive in its history.

"The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States has led the fight for immediate payment of adjusted service certificates for the past several years," said Commander Peterson. "We have recently been joined by the American Legion in these efforts and are also winning increasing public and press support in behalf of the discharge of this national debt to the World War service men."

"Victory for the bonus measure is actually in sight this winter. The only thing that can defeat us is the lack of support on the part of every veteran concerned."

Elmer Eames, 6 Grandview rd., is on the dean's list at Northeastern University. He is a sophomore in the engineering school. He is a graduate of Arlington High School.

We must have the active membership of all overseas veterans to emphasize the tremendous and united strength of the men to whom this money is due.

"All Veterans are warned to avoid all bonus marches to Washington which are being fostered by Communist groups "for the purpose of fomenting agitation."

Over $1,000 Paid For Christmas Seals

The Welfare Council Tuberculosis Seal Sale Committee report contributions from sale, to date, $1106.72. This is far below last year's amount. The need of health work is greater. They must have more money for the distribution of free milk in the public schools and for Health Camp work.

If you have not sent your contribution for this work we urge you to do so at once and help this committee, to help our children obtain better health.

Bert Lytell To Make Personal Appearance At Plymouth Theatre

Bert Lytell, in "The First Legion" begins a two weeks' engagement at the Plymouth Theatre on Monday evening, January 21st. The Boston engagement follows almost directly the long and successful run at the Biltmore Theatre in New York, where after two extensions made necessary by popular demand, it closed on Saturday, January 5th. The company is now at the Garrick Theatre in Philadelphia.

Few plays have created as much discussion as this romantic comedy-drama of the Jesuits. It is unique, human, thrilling, humorous and thoroughly entertaining. While it is a play about religion it is not a religious play.

Heights Study Club To Sponsor Bridge

Next Tuesday afternoon, January 22 at 1:30 o'clock the Arlington Heights Study Club will hold a Salad Bridge in the Parish House of the Park Avenue Congregational church to raise money for the scholarship fund by which some deserving Arlington boy or girl is annually given an opportunity to start on a college career. Last year the recipient was Alice Astor of 93 Sylvia st.

The committee in charge of the Bridge is Mrs. F. P. Hawkes, chairman; Mrs. J. H. Mead, Mrs. H. R. Peirce, Mrs. N. F. Bacon, Mrs. A. J. Covell, Mrs. C. E. Johnson, Mrs. H. C. Moore, and Mrs. E. L. Shinn. Mrs. Clifford Dumble is in charge of the food sale assisted by Mrs. H. W. Lamson and Mrs. F. C. Monroe.

The executive board of the Comet Club of Calvary Church met at the parsonage on Friday evening to discuss plans for the coming months.

Real Hits For Week At Capitol Theatre

To Dick Powell, popular star of "Flirtation Walk," the new First National musical romance, now at the Capitol theatre, fell a distinction that has never before been accorded a civilian resident of the United States.

"Flirtation Walk" presents as Powell's co-stars the bewitching Ruby Keeler, who plays the daughter of a West Point Superintendent, and Pat O'Brien. Also, "Age of Innocence" with Irene Dunne is on this program.

On Monday "Comedians" says Hollywood, "are known by the props they keep." But not Jack Oakie. For the popular Paramount comedian, currently featured in "College Rhythm," coming Monday to the Capitol theatre, is the screen's only comedian who gets his laughs without props.

To further entertain, "Lady By Choice" with Carole Lombard will be shown.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Kiwanis Club

Hon. David McIntosh, of the Massachusetts Highway Users' conference was guest speaker yesterday. He gave us a very good idea of what happens to our gasoline dollar. The talk was very instructive and gave a good resume of the tax situation in the State.

The twentieth anniversary of Kiwanis International will be observed next Monday when William Carrington, International President will deliver a special message over the Columbia network between 1 and 1.15 p. m.

The Arlington Club will have a special anniversary program at its regular meeting in Wyman's next Thursday noon. Dr. Franklin P. Hawkes will speak on "When Kiwanis Speaks".

In the very forefront of present-day screen actresses stands Claudette Colbert, the glamorous brunette beauty who comes to the Capitol theatre on Thursday in the starring role of Universal's John M. Stahl production, "Imitation of Life". "Imitation of Life" is powerfully dramatic, and Miss Colbert's supporting cast includes Warren William, Ned Sparks, Louise Beavers, Rochelle Hudson, Baby Jane, Wyndham Standing, Fred Washington, Alan Hale and many other favorites. The story was adapted from the novel by Fannie Hurst. Also "The Captain Hates the Sea" with a host of stars.

DANA'S REPORT

Edward Dana, executive vice president and general manager of the Boston Elevated Railway, after an examination of the car which plunged into another at the Copley sq subway station said that mechanical defects were not responsible for the crash.

"A careful examination of the colliding Lechmere car by the mechanical department of the Boston Elevated Railway produced no evidence indicating mechanical defects in this car," Mr. Dana said.

"The car had been thoroughly inspected for trucks, motors, control wiring, air brake and trolley equipment on Jan. 10, three days before the accident, and after the inspection was in safe op-

Track Team
Loses 45 - 26

The star studded Arlington High School track team met defeat at Brookline last Saturday in a bitter weather. In the past two years, Brookline, a class "A" team has edged Arlington, a class "B" team by one point and half point, respectively. This year they maintained a one point lead until the last men and the broad-jumpers were called. These events were swept by the Wealthy Towners and they forged to a 45-26 victory. The relay was called off because of the freezing weather.

Cronin again won the 1000-yd run very handily while his teammate, Frederickson breezed into second place. Cook, displaying a powerful, killing stride spurred to victory in the 600-yd run. Captain "Billy" Does won his heat in the 300-yd dash but was given only a tie for second in the time placements.

Collins and Suhr in the shotput, Hoffman in the hurdles, Tibbitts and Lewis in the high jump also did well but were unable to overcome the Brookline lead.

The summary:
35-Yard Dash. First Heat—Won by Rogers (B); Grenier (B), second; time 4-3-10. Second Heat—Won by Sklar (B); Livingston (B), second; time 4-5-5.
300-Yard Run—Won by Rogers (B); Sklar (B) and Doe (A), tied for second; time 3-6-5.
600-Yard Run—Won by Cools (A); Anderson (B), second; J. Abels (B), third; time 1m. 35-4-5.
1000-Yard Run—Won by Cronin (A); Frederickson (A), second; M. Abels (B), third; time 2m 36s.
40-Yd Hurdles—Won by Hartmann (B); Hoffman (A), second; time 5-3-10s.
Shotput—Won by Kerin (B); Collins (A), second; Suhr (A), third; distance, 44ft 10-7-10.
Broad Jump—Won by Grenier (B); Rogers (B) second; Sklar (B), third; distance, 9ft 5-5-10.
High Jump—Won by Hartmann (B); Tibbitts (A), second; Lewis (A), third; height, 5ft 8in.

AHS Trounces Belmont, 6 - 2

The Arlington High Hockey team overcame a terrific handicap last Saturday afternoon at the Boston Arena when they were beaten 2 to 0 in the first three minutes of play with Belmont, a team that had tied Melrose and had shown spurts all season. But the Red and Gray with undaunted spirit came back with a bang to put a half a dozen goals through a brilliant Belmont goalie to finally win 6 to 2.

The second line started the game and had two goals scored on it in quick succession when it failed to cover their men in front of the net. The first line came on but they failed to score. The second line made up one of its lost goals in the same period and the first line evened up the count in the second period and when the second line scored again to put Arlington in the lead it was never headed. Preston was the star of the game with his brilliant playing. Joe Gardella the fiery member of the squad, tied Belmont in a knot and his body checks were hard and many. Byrnes also played his best game of the year and although he failed to score, he had an assist and aided materially in other goals as well as playing a stellar game at defense. The Arlington subs were given a long session in the last period and showed considerable promise.

The summary:
ARLINGTON—Preston, Moe, Owen, rw; Gardella, Norberg, c; Chipman, Keele, Lucas, lw; Collins, Lane, rd; Byrne, lane, ld; Sakolan, Coyne, g.

BELMONT—Malone, Dansersau, lw; Neuf, Hafey, Wright, c; Olive, Hartwell, rw; Grothjohn, ld; Hayes, rd; Fitzgerald, g.
Score—Arlington 6, Belmont 2.
